I hope to see everyone in New Orleans in March 2014. This is a couple of weeks earlier than we normally meet, but this was necessary to get the best possible room rate - plus, the weather is usually nicer (...less hot/humid) in the first days of spring. Our planned Friday outing is to the National World War II Museum, just a few blocks from our hotel. We were there in 2007, but the facility has grown to over twice it's 2007 size in recent years. Please make all effort to attend the 2014 reunion. This could very well be our final gathering, based on dramatically dwindling attendance due to the challenges associated with traveling for our 80/90+ year-old WWII veterans. Let's gather one more time in the Big Easy!!!!
