

BIBLIOGRAPHY

PARTIAL LISTING OF PUBLISHED SOURCES WITH AN EMPHASIS ON LCT INFORMATION
EVERYONE IS ENCOURAGED TO SUBMIT ADDITIONAL SOURCES--MANY THANKS.

Amphibians Came to Conquer:

The Story of Admiral Richmond Kelley Turner

George C. Dyer, publ: U.S.M.C., Wash. D.C. 1971, 91.
Wash. D.C. 1971, 91.

Detailed history of the founder of the amphib forces in the Pacific with emphasis on the Central Pacific, Solomons, New Guinea and Philippines campaigns. 2 vol., many LCT references, command structures.

Assault from the Sea

J.D. Ladd, publ: David & Charles Ltd., London 1976.
English author describes the craft and assault ships of the Allies. Great narrative, excellent photos and schematics of DUKWs and LCVPs to LCTs and LSTs.

Assault from the Sea

L.E.H. Maund, publ: Methuen & Co., London 1949
British Admiral describes "combined operations" of Allied amphibians with emphasis on the Brits.

Ballantine's Illustrated History of World War 2

Ballantine Books Inc., various authors, NY 1968.
Superb and thorough series covering over 55 editions including D-Day, Okinawa, Tarawa, Sicily, Anzio and the Philippines. Heavily illustrated, maps of landings. Paperbacks still available at used bookstores for under $10 each.

Battle Report

Capt. Walter Karig U.S.N.R., publ: Rinehart & Co., NY 1952.
5 volumes cover WW2 and one on Korea. Vol 1: Pearl to Philippine evacuation; Vol 2: ETO Normandy and the Med; Vol 3: Aleutians, Solomons, Russells, and Guadalcanal; Vol 4: New Guinea, Greens, Central Pacific; Vol 5: Philippines to Iwo Jima.

The Forgotten War: A Pictorial History of WW2 in Alaska and Northwestern Canada

Stan Cohen, publ: Pictorial Histories Publ. Co., Missoula, Montana 1981
Excellent 4-volume set filled with lots of photos and a good description of Navy action in the Aleutians.

Small Boats and Large Slow Targets

Robert E. Witter, publ: Pictorial Histories Publ. Co., Missoula, Montana 1998
Not much on the LCTs but a great source for the small landing craft and wonderful LST narratives.

The Tin Armada: Saga of the LCT

Basil Hearde, excerpted from Challenge WW2 Special, vol. 1 no. 2; 1994
Great article on the LCTs from this issue of Challenge magazine dedicated entirely to the amphib forces.

History of U.S. Naval Operations in World War 2

Samuel Eliot Morison, publ: Little, Brown & Co., Boston 1957.

Top-notch series on the Navy in WW2 includes numerous references to the LCTs with command structures, photos, maps, and landing charts. 14 vols. Vol 1: Battle of the Atlantic; Vol 2: North Africa; Vol 3: The Rising Sun; Vol 4: Coral Sea and Midway; Vol 5: Guadalcanal; Vol 6: The Bismarcks Barrier; Vol 7: Aleutians, Gilberts and Marshalls; Vol 8: New Guinea and Marianas; Vol 9: Sicily, Salerno and Anzio; Vol 10: Atlantic Battle Won; Vol 11: Normandy and Southern France; Vol 12: Leyte; Vol 13: Iwo Jima and Okinawa; Vol 14: Philippines.

The U.S. Navy in World War 2

S.E. Smith, publ: Wm. Morrow & Co., NY 1966
Comprehensive single volume is a collection of first-hand accounts of the men who fought in the Atlantic and Pacific theaters. Several good LCT accounts.

The War At Sea

Capt. S.W. Roskill, publ: HMSO, London 1961
Largely a British account of Naval action throughout the War in both theaters. Limited LCT material.

The War in the Pacific:

U.S. Marine Corps Monograph Series

publ: U.S.M.C., various authors, Washington D.C.
Another excellent series with mention of the LCTs. Top-rate maps and photos cover all major landings from the Marines point of view. 14 volumes include: Wake, Tarawa, Marshalls, Midway, Solomons, Guadalcanal, Peleliu, Saipan, Tinian, New Britain, Guam, Iwo Jima.

The Amphibians Are Coming!

William L. McGee, publ: BMC Publications, Santa Barbara, CA 2000
Excellent close-up look at the landing craft and men who served on them. Lots of references to the LCTs with an emphasis on Flotilla 5 and Operation Toenails in the Solomons. Volumes 2 and 3 coming out in 2001.